Phrase to reflect on as you walk: The smallest thing will not be forgotten.

At a spot of your choosing, stop and say this prayer, taking a few moments to be still:

Dear Lord, help me to trust in your wisdom
that nothing is forgotten.

Give me the strength to meet the events of my life believing that in you all will be revealed and everything will be made well.

Help me to surrender my anxiety
so that my spirit might have ease
and be at peace in love.
